Special Focus of this Issue
Transnational Solidarity – An Interdisciplinary Approach

Karl-Peter Sommermann
Some Reflections on the Concept of Solidarity and its Transformation into a Legal Principle

Hauke Brunkhorst
Europe as Crossroads

Sally J. Scholz
Solidarity as a Human Right

Markus Tobias Kotzur/Kirsten Schmalenbach
Solidarity Among Nations

Doris Wydra/Helga Pülzl
Solidarity Discourse in National Parliaments

Erwin Stolz
Solidarity in Times of Crisis from a Sociological Perspective
Special Focus of this Issue

Transnational Solidarity – An Interdisciplinary Approach

Issued in cooperation with Stephan Kirste, Sonja Puntscher-Riekmann, Kirsten Schmalenbach and Doris Wydra

Editorial
Stephan Kirste/Sonja Puntscher-Riekmann/Kirsten Schmalenbach/Doris Wydra: Introduction to the Special Issue “Transnational Solidarity – An Interdisciplinary Approach”

Articles
Karl-Peter Sommermann: Some Reflections on the Concept of Solidarity and its Transformation into a Legal Principle
Hauke Brunkhorst: Europe as Crossroads: Between the Kantian Mindset of Democratic Capitalism and the Managerial Mindset of Capitalist Democracy
Sally J. Scholz: Solidarity as a Human Right
Kirsten Schmalenbach/Markus Tobias Kotzur: Solidarity Among Nations
Doris Wydra/ Helga Püzl: Solidarity Discourse in National Parliaments: The European Crisis hits Home!
Erwin Stolz: Solidarity in Times of Crisis from a Sociological Perspective: A Comparative Analysis of Intergenerational Support in six European Countries