Journal of Intellectual Property Law & Practice

Open innovation's answer to the challenges of patent overpropertization
Is Article 13 of the Enforcement Directive a redundancy notice for the account of profits remedy in the UK?
The 'exhaustion approach' to trade mark protection: a parallel universe or a better way?
Of availability, targeting and accessibility: online copyright infringements and jurisdiction in the EU
From GRUR Int: Federal Patent Court (Bundespatentgericht – BPatG) amends case law on “Generic Term” in EU Regulation 1151/2012
From GRUR Int: Metatags and keywords as comparative advertising
From GRUR Int: Unregistered Community designs, limitations, forfeiture and sanctions in the context of multistate infringements

Includes content from GRUR Int

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
The CJEU confirms the exclusive character of EU competence in PDO/PGI schemes
Nicola Coppola ........................................ 717

Search engine liability arising from third parties infringing content: a path to strict liability?
Marco Rizzo Jurado ...................................... 718

Marco Alexandre Saias ................................ 721

Open innovation’s answer to the challenges of patent overproportionality
W. Wesley Hill ........................................... 730

Is Article 13 of the Enforcement Directive a redundancy notice for the account of profits remedy in the UK?
John Fitzgerald and Alison Firth ........................ 737

The ‘exhaustion approach’ to trade mark protection: a parallel universe or a better way?
Jennifer Davis ........................................... 742

Of availability, targeting and accessibility: online copyright infringements and jurisdiction in the EU
Sari Depreeuw and Jean-Benoit Hubin .................. 750

Federal Patent Court (Bundespatentgericht – BPatG) amends case law on “Generic Term” in EU Regulation 1151/2012
Volker Schoene .......................................... 765

Metatags and keywords as comparative advertising
Roland Knaak ............................................ 770
Unregistered Community designs, limitations, forfeiture and sanctions in the context of multistate infringements
Dr Ralf Hackbartth .............................. 778

The arithmetic is easy, it is the inputs that are difficult
Keith Hodkinson .............................. 782

IP in Review

Harmonization by degrees
Richard Arnold .............................. 781