Developing Sexual Offender Laws and Treatment in Europe

Legal trends and new paths in treatment strategies for sexual offenders

edited by Gunda Wößner

with contributions by

Hans-Jörg Albrecht (D), György Virág (HU), Karen Harrison (UK), Astrid Hirschelmann (FR), Rita Haverkamp & Gunda Wößner (D), Petr Škvain (CZ), Wojciech Zalewski (PL), Katalin Parti, Judit Szabó & György Virág (HU), Rustem Safin & Alexander Salagaev (RU), Anthony R. Beech & Steven M. Gillespie (UK), Richard Jones (UK) and Marie Keenan (IE) & Estelle Zinsstag (BE)
Content Issue 1/2014

Wößner, Gunda, Foreword .......................................................... 1
Albrecht, Hans-Jörg, Introduction .................................................. 3
Virág, György, What are we talking about when we are talking about sexuality? – Some preliminary considerations .................................................. 7

ARTICLES

Developing Sexual Offender Laws and Treatment in Europe
Legal trends and new paths in treatment strategies for sexual offenders

I. Sexual Offender Legislation and Treatment in Selected European Countries

Harrison, Karen, Governing Serious Offenders: Recent developments in legislation in England and Wales .................................................. 10
Hirschelmann, Astrid, Some New Penal and Therapeutic Tendencies in France in the Trade-off Between Treating Sexual Offenders and Protecting Society .................................................. 19
Haverkamp, Rita/Wößner, Gunda, New Responses to Sexual Offenders: Recent developments in legislation and treatment in Germany .................................................. 31
Škvain, Petr, Physical (Surgical) Castration as Treatment of Male Sex Offenders? Recent developments in legislation in the Czech Republic .................................................. 40
Zalewski, Wojciech, Therapeutic and Legislative Approaches to Sex Offenders in Poland .................................................. 48
Parti, Katalin/Szabó, Judit/Virág, György, Sex Offenders in Hungary: Law, treatment and statistics .................................................. 57
Safin, Rustem/Salagaev, Alexander, Treatment of Sexual Offenders in Russia: Recent developments in legislation and implementation of practices .................................................. 70

II. Modern Approaches to Sexual Crimes

Beech, Anthony R./Gillespie, Steven M., The Understanding and Treatment of Sexual Offenders in the 21st Century: A neurobiological perspective .................................................. 78
Jones, Richard, The Electronic Monitoring of Serious Offenders: Is there a rehabilitative potential? .................................................. 85
Keenan, Marie/Zinsstag, Estelle, Restorative Justice and Sexual Offences: Can «changing lenses» be appropriate in this case too? .................................................. 93

COMING EVENTS/MITTEILUNGEN

Gangs, Trafficking and Insecurity: Empowering the Community – 17. World Congress of Criminology, 10–15 August 2014 in Monterrey, Nuevo León, Mexiko .......................................................... 107
Reviewer 2013 ........................................................................................................ 107

BOOK REVIEWS/BUCHBESPRECHUNGEN

Endrass, Jérôme/Rosegger, Astrid/Urbaniok, Frank/Borchard, Bernd (Hrsg.), Interventionen bei Gewalt- und Sexualstraftätern (Helmut Kury, Freiburg i.Br.) .............. 109
Keyzer, Patrick (ed.), Preventive Detention: Asking the Fundamental Questions (Axel Dessecker, Wiesbaden) .......................................................... 112