Contents

Editorial
José Angelo Estrella Faria

Articles

Mediation agreements: time for a more creative approach by the English courts
Neil Andrews

Future prospects of the unification of contract law in Europe and worldwide: a dialogue between Michael Joachim Bonell and Ole Lando on the occasion of the seminar in honour of Ole Lando held in Copenhagen on 29 August 2012
Michael Joachim Bonell and Ole Lando

Key concepts in uniform and regional private law instruments: an emerging consensus?
Eric Clive

Law harmonization and local specificities – a case study: OHADA and the law of contracts
Marcel Fontaine

Competition law versus insolvency law: when legal doctrines clash
Christoph G. Paulus
Agreed form requirements in international construction contracts: is enrichment irrelevant?  78
Christina Ramberg

The EU Consumer Rights Directive: optimizing, creating alternatives, or a dead end?  98
Stefan Grundmann

Developing uniform rules for commercial contracts in Greater China: challenges and possibilities  128
John Mo

International Developments / Activités internationales
International commercial arbitration in India: governing law issues  154
Nikhil Suresh Pareek

The feasibility of parties' choice of the PICC in Sino-European commercial contracts: an overview of the Chinese legal framework  163
Weidi Long

Case Law / Jurisprudence
Case Summaries  171

Book Reviews & Notices / Comptes rendus bibliographiques
Teresa Rodriguez de las Heras Ballell, Security rights upon aircraft equipment in international trade: The Cape Town Convention and its Protocol (By Manuel Alba)  196

Please visit the journal's website at: www.ulr.oxfordjournals.org